On 3 September the Canton public security bureau held a conference of the heads of police precincts in Canton and decided to take the following security measures at once:

- a. Require Canton residents to secure a special permit from the local district government before spending the night away from home.
- b. Arrest military or civilian personnel for causing a disturbance in Canton streets between midnight and 0700 hours.
- c. Permit Canton residents on police probation to leave home only three times per week for only one hour each time.
- d. Require the Canton police to make daily reports to the Canton public security bureau on population and travel controls.
- e. Require the Canton police to turn over to the Canton public security bureau all persons arrested within forty-eight hours after their arrests.
If the police cannot do this, they are to notify the public security bureau as quickly as possible.
1. ☐ Comment. The Canton government has already established a strict population surveillance system in each street in Canton and has taken additional measures to detect persons who flee to Canton from outlying areas to avoid being arrested at home as reactionaries. ☐
